Crown Estate Scotland Draft Corporate Plan 2026-31

Crown Estate Scotland is seeking your views on their draft Corporate Plan 2026-2031 (the draft plan).

This consultation is being managed for Crown Estate Scotland by an independent market research agency, Why Research, who are a member of the Market Research Society and governed by the Society's Code of Conduct. Feedback on this questionnaire will be analysed and reported on by Why Research. Your participation in this survey is voluntary and Why Research will not report any information that can personally identify you.

If you have any queries in relation to this consultation questionnaire or how the data will be analysed, please call Why Research on 07747 800220 or email researcher@whyresearch.co.uk

Your privacy

Please be assured that all responses to this questionnaire will be treated in complete confidence. No personal information will be given to Crown Estate Scotland or any other organisation and reports published will not identify any individuals who have taken part in the survey.

Why Research is committed to meeting the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Market Research Society's Code of Conduct. Any information you provide will be treated in confidence and all our reporting is anonymised.

We permanently delete any personal information 12 months after the consultation has finished, as stipulated by the Market Research Society.

Why Research's privacy policy follows on the next page.

Why Research: Privacy Policy Statement

Your privacy is important to us and we take care to protect your privacy and any information you provide while conducting research with us. We have robust procedures in place to ensure that all data is processed and stored securely. We are committed to meeting the requirements of:

- * The EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
- * Data Protection Act 1988 and the Data Protection Act 2018 which enacts GDPR requirements.
- * Market Research Society's (MRS) Code of Conduct and the 12 Fair Data Principles which came into effect on 1 April 2020.
- * The Scottish Government's Social Research ethics checklist.
- * The Social Research Association's and Association of Qualitative Research's Codes of Ethics.

Research invitations and requests

When we invite you to take part in a survey, we will explain why the data is being collected and how it will be processed.

We do not promote or sell anything. We carry out market research using scientific methods and we commit, in obtaining your cooperation, not to mislead you about the nature of the research we are undertaking or how the findings from this will be used. Your response will be treated as confidential unless you consent to being identified.

If you are invited to take part in research, it will be because you have given permission for a company to supply your details to a third party for research purposes, or you have taken part in previous research administered by Why Research and given us your permission to contact you in the future for research purposes.

If you have been contacted by Why Research and you do not believe you have given your permission or just wish your name to be removed from our database, please let us know and we will remove your details from our contact list and inform the relevant organisation who supplied the details.

We never knowingly invite children under the age of 16 to participate in research studies without taking measures to ensure appropriate consent from a responsible adult.

The information we collect

We will collect your information when you participate in research for us. When we contact you, it is usually to:

- * Invite you to participate in a specific research project.
- * Confirm the details of research you have agreed to take part in.
- * Conduct research with you.
- * Validate answers or views you have given us in a recent research project that we conducted (if you have given us permission to recontact you).
- * Update and ensure our records of your personal information are correct.

The information we collect may also contact your personal opinions as well as personal information such as name, address, postcode, gender, occupation, age, date of birth, email address, telephone number etc. Where relevant to research we are undertaking, we may also collect business information such as company name, job title, department etc.

We do not carry out any invisible processing of data from your computer. We will only collect and use personal information in accordance with this policy as is reasonably necessary to meet our legitimate business purposes, and we will maintain appropriate safeguards to ensure the security, integrity, accuracy and privacy of the information you have provided. We will never pass your data on to any third parties without your consent.

Why Research makes reasonable efforts to keep personal information in its possession or control, which is used on an ongoing basis, accurate, complete, current and relevant, based on the most recent information you have provided. We rely on you to help us keep your personal information accurate, complete and current by answering our questions honestly.

Information that is personally identifiable that we collect is kept for no longer than 12 months from when a project started unless we provide different information at the start of a research project. Non-identifiable information you give will be kept for no longer than 2 years

How we use your information

The personal information we collect is:

- * Combined with the responses / views / opinions provided by others who also participated in the same research.
- * Used on an aggregate and anonymous basis to determine which groups of people hold certain views more than other groups of people.
- * Occasionally used to re-contact you to validate your responses.

All of your survey responses are treated as confidential. We never intentionally disclose any of your personal information or individual survey responses to the client who commissioned the survey or any other third party unless:

- * You request or consent to sharing your identifying information and individual responses.
- * In the rare but possible circumstance that the information is subject to disclosure pursuant to judicial or other government subpoenas, warrants, orders or for similar legal or regulatory requirements.

Who we share information with

We do not sell any personal information to third parties. From time to time we may employ other companies or individuals to perform functions on our behalf. They are given access to the personal information needed to perform their functions but will not use it for any other purposes. They are also required to process any personal information in accordance with this privacy policy statement and the requirements of GDPR and Data Protection laws. We endeavour at all times to ensure any personal information is kept confidential and secure.

Cookies

A cookie is a small text file that may be placed on your device when you complete one of our surveys. Our surveys use session cookies, which are temporary and removed when you close the browser. This session cookie allows us to give your visit to our website (or one of our partners' websites) a unique identifier so you can complete the survey. You can configure your browser to notify you when cookies are being placed on your computer and you can also turn off or delete those you do not want.

Security

We maintain appropriate technical, administrative and physical safeguards to protect information that is provided to us. We review, monitor and evaluate our privacy policy on a regular basis. Only a limited number of employees have access to the personal information your provide us with and are only granted access for the purposes of data analysis and quality control. Personal information is separated from non-personal information and stored securely in a different place.

Your rights

Your cooperation in any research project is voluntary at all times. You are entitled to access any personal information we hold about you (by a subject access request) and you have the right to update any incorrect information. Wherever reasonable and practical we will carry out such a request. You also have the right to withdraw the consent you have for participation in one of our surveys at any time and have your personal details deleted. To do this, please submit your request in writing to the address below. If you have any concerns about how we collect and process personal information, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).

Queries

If you have any queries relating to this policy, our website or our research, or you would like to make a subject access request, please contact us on 07747 800220, email researcher@whyresearch.co.uk or write to us at The Lighthouse, Heugh Road Industrial Estate, North Berwick, EH39 5PX.

Section 5: Impact Assessment

Crown Estate Scotland is carrying out a number of impact assessments to inform the development of their Corporate Plan. The following questions will help to inform these impact assessments, ensuring Crown Estate Scotland takes full account of equalities, children and island interests in the development of their corporate plan.

Equalities Impact Assessment

Q11a

Please indicate in the table below if you think the draft plan will impact on those with one or more protected characteristics?

	Positive impact	Negative impact	No impact	Don't know
Age	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Disability	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Gender reassignment	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Marriage and civil partnership	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Sex	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Pregnancy and maternity	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Race	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Religion or belief	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Sexual orientation	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

Q11b

Where you have a view, please outline what you think the impact of the Plan will be, on which Protected Characteristic, and whether you think anything should be changed in the draft plan to address that impact.

Q12a

Do you think the draft plan will impact on the reduction of inequalities of outcome caused by socio-economic disadvantage? Inequalities of outcome relates to any measurable differences between those who have experienced socio-economic disadvantage and the rest of the population – this could relate, for example, to poorer health and life expectancy; lower skills and educational attainment; lower quality, less secure and lower paid work; or less chance of being treated with dignity and respect.

- ☐ Positive impact
- ☐ Negative impact
- ☐ No impact
- ☐ Don't know

Q12b

Please outline any impacts you think the draft plan will have and anything you think should be changed in the draft plan to address that impact.

Island Communities Impact Assessment

Q13a

Do you think the draft plan is likely to have an effect on an island community which is significantly different from its effect on mainland or other island communities in Scotland? The Islands (Scotland) Act 2018 defines an island community as a community which consists of two or more individuals, all of whom permanently inhabit an island, and is based on common interest, identity or geography.

- ☐ Yes, it will have a positive effect
- ☐ Yes, it will have a negative effect
- ☐ No, it will not have an effect
- ☐ Don't know

Q13b

Where you consider there will be an effect, please outline what that effect is, which island community will be affected, why you consider the effect to be significantly different, and any views you might have on how the draft plan could address the effect on the island community.

Children's Rights and Wellbeing Impact Assessment

Q14a

Do you think the draft plan will impact on the wellbeing of children and young people (up to the age 18)? Getting It Right For Every Child (GIRFEC) <https://www.gov.scot/policies/girfec/> uses eight indicators to define 'Wellbeing' - Safe, Healthy, Achieving, Nurtured, Active, Respected, Responsible, Included. Please consider these indicators in thinking about the impact on wellbeing of children and young people.

- ☐ Yes, it will have a positive effect
- ☐ Yes, it will have a negative effect
- ☐ No, it will not have an effect
- ☐ Don't know

Q14b

Where you consider there will be an effect, please outline what that effect is and whether there is a particular group of children or young people that will be impacted. And please let us know if you have any views on how the draft plan could address the effect.

Groups of children could include those with different protected characteristics, or could, for example, include preschool children, children in rural areas, looked after children, young people who offend, child migrants, or children living in poverty.
